ORANGE.

RUMORED CHANGE IN CITY OFFICERS.
It is rumored throughout the city that wholesale changes are about to be made in heads of city departments. C. G. Williams, who has been the efficient collector of taxes for the last nineteen years, it is said will be superseded by ex-postmaster Waldo B. Tichenor, City Clerk, who has been promoted to the position of City Clerk by James T. Matthews. The City Council Light by Bradford Smith, Marshall McChesney by George H. H. Smith, a minor or local politician, of no weight; Street Commissioner Daniel Brennan, by ex-Alderman L. L. Smith, City Physician Letresault by Dr. Phelan. Either M. J. McKiernan, Christopher MacMahon or John Dolan will be water clerk, it is said, and the chief of the fire department is to be superseded by Thomas Cunningham.

Since the reception given by the Orange Democrats to Governor Abbott, when he proudly pointed to his record of re-election, old tried and faithful officials with his own heels the Democrats have been anxious to emulate his example, and as a result have been holding caucuses continually, but whether they will be successful is still in doubt, as the two factions have only recently harmonized, and is doubtful if they will stay harmonized.

Republicans are much amused to see the efforts of Democrats to push into prominence Alderman Lethbridge, who when the Mayor is absent presides at the meetings of the Common Council, and in the absence of the Mayor from the city for two weeks becomes acting Mayor, with limited powers.

The election of a Republican Mayor a year ago demonstrates that the Mayor they have chosen is not a success, and not having the Mayor they have chosen, the President of the Common Council. He is continually addressed as such on all occasions by his local press, and has even had the efforts of the Common Council as Acting Mayor, instead of President of Council, though his predecessor, Alderman John Seymour, a liquor-shop keeper, who held the place for several terms, was selected to be called plain "Johnnie."

The Rev. William M. R. Callen, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of the Valley, of Orange Valley, has called for Europe for the benefit of his health. He will visit Ireland and Rome. The parish is left in the charge of his assistant, the Rev. P. J. Dillon.

The annual exhibition of the Orange Art Association will be held this year in the clubhouse of the Orange Athletic Club, and will open on Monday, April 20. The exhibition, as a whole, will be a much more extensive one than in previous years. Among the artists who have promised to send in works are William M. Chase, William H. Low, W. J. Baer, W. K. Wyant and George Bayless.

The fight over the electric railroad in East Orange is about to be renewed. The Newark Rapid Transit Company has prepared an application for a franchise over Central Ave. The annual township election has intervened since the former application was denied, and the railroad men gained a victory at the polls. The indications are now that the franchise will be granted.

ELIZABETH.

FATALLY BURNED BY HER OWN STOVE.
Mrs. Anna Conlin, twenty-three years old, was fatally burned yesterday by her clothing catching fire from a stove in the kitchen. She was a widow with two children, and boarded in Lambert-st. with a family named Connolly. She was troubled with a toothache, she said, and, being unable to sleep, sat by the fire, she dozed in the chair and fell over against the stove, which ignited her dress. She was fatally burned before she could be rescued. The policeman who responded to the cry of the neighbors found the woman writhing on a lounge, her garments ablaze and the lounge and a quilt which she had wrapped around her also on fire. Mrs. Conlin was removed to Michael's Hospital, Newark, where she died at noon.

EXPELLING FOUR ANARCHISTS.

The Arbeiter Maennerchor, a singing society, on Friday night expelled four Anarchists who have been a disturbing element in the organization for some time. The men, John Beyer, Edward Specht, Fritz Ottenthal and C. Platt, have long been recognized as incendiary in their utterances. The Maennerchor voted to participate in the big festival at Newark, in July, of German singing societies, but the Anarchists objected to this and wanted the money that would be expended by the society used to promote socialism. This aroused the conservative element of the society, who declared that the Anarchists must go, or else the conservatives would all resign and form another singing society. The men were expelled by a large majority vote.

WOODBIDGE.

TWO WOMEN FIGHT OVER AN EASTER BONNET.
Two women of mature years had a lively quarrel on Friday in the street. The trouble was over an Easter bonnet. Mrs. Grace had the bonnet and Mrs. Reddy wanted to copy it. Mrs. Grace demurred and heartburns followed. The women did not speak as they passed by, but when Mrs. Grace's back was turned Mrs. Reddy, it is said, made evasive remarks. This came to Mrs. Grace's ears, and when she met Mrs. Reddy, in the neighborhood of Dunn's Lane, she demanded satisfaction. She got it. The two women engaged in a public fight. Mrs. Grace soon found that Mrs. Reddy was too much for her with her fists. Then she tried her nails. Mrs. Reddy proved quite handy with hers. Thereupon Mrs. Grace seized a club and dealt her adversary a blow on the head which deprived Mrs. Reddy of her senses and lost her fight. Mrs. Reddy's injuries are serious and a warrant is out for the arrest of Mrs. Grace. The friends of the two women tried to keep their names secret, but since the case has gotten into the hands of the police this was impossible.

RAYMOND.

Judge Knapp, in Jersey City, yesterday granted an order compelling City Clerk Hamilton, of Raymont, to print the name of William C. Farr, Democratic candidate for Mayor, on the "Irregular" Republican ticket. This ticket is the outcome of Farr's supporters endeavoring to secure the regular Republican nomination for Farr. He was induced by some of the Republicans, but others refused to do so. Farr, who is a well-known man, is a Democratic candidate. Judge Knapp refused to order that Mayor Newman's name should not be printed on the regular Republican ticket, and explicitly said that Farr's should appear only on the "Irregular" ticket.

NEWARK.

James Smith, Jr., who was appointed by the Mayor a Commissioner of Public Works, and who if he accepts will be the president and director of the Board, said yesterday that he had not as yet made up his mind about accepting, but would decide by Monday.

The managers of the National Seaside, to be held in Newark in July, have arranged for a "Commer" to take place on Tuesday next at Caledonia Park Hall. The presidents of the Newark singing societies, within thirty miles of New York will attend it, and Governor Abbott will present a silver flag to the united singers in behalf of President Lantz of the association.

A SUIT AGAINST H. K. THURBER.
The case of Richard Giles, Alice Maud Phillips and Katharine L. Giles, children of the late Dr. William M. Giles, of East Chester, and heirs of Ann Jane Giles, who died in New York City in 1880, intestate, against Horace K. Thurber, to settle a deed of property in Hudson County, N. J., which was given by the Giles to Mr. Thurber in settlement of debts amounting to some $8,000, came up before Judge Dykman, in the Supreme Court at White Plains, yesterday. The heirs say that the property belonged to Dr. Thurber, who was a warm personal friend of Dr. Giles, belonged to their mother, and was only held by their father in trust for them; they further allege that their father was wrongfully induced to transfer bonds and mortgages to Mr. Thurber in payment of the indebtedness. Thereafter Mr. Thurber foreclosed the mortgage, and a deed was given to him by John O'Neill, who held the bond and mortgages in trust for Mr. Thurber. The property in dispute is near the snake hill Pentecostal, in Hudson County, and the Board of Trustees of the Pentecostal Church, who are the trustees of the property, are the plaintiffs. The defense is the statute of limitation. The plaintiffs declare that the real state of facts in the case was not discovered until 1889, from which year the court should compute the time. Judge Dykman directed the respective attorneys to submit their points on Friday.

WHITE PLAINS.—In the Supreme Court at White Plains yesterday, before Judge Dykman, Mrs. Anna C. Silcox, of Yonkers, brought an action for absolute divorce from her husband, George W. Silcox. She testified that her husband is an importer and exporter of goods, and that he has an annual income of $10,000 to $12,000. In April, 1882, she was married to him in New York City. She alleges that in 1889 her husband abandoned her for Georgiana Parker. The defendant did not appear or answer. He is in prison. Judge Dykman granted the application. The question of alimony, it is said, is fixed by private agreement.

ALONG THE SOUND.

BRIDGEPORT.—Mayor-elect William H. Margold, who has the honor of defeating the strongest candidate the Democrats have named for years, will assume his office to-morrow, and will be the new Common Council member for the first time in a week. Last night a three-masted schooner Greenleaf Johnson, 600 tons, sailed for New Haven port, was launched at East End yesterday.

NEW-YORK CITY.

Verestelaghi's paintings of scenes in the Holy Land, a large number of which are in the collection of the American Art Galleries, daily attract a large number of Biblical students.

An entertainment called "A Dream of the Seasons," for the benefit of the Manhattan Athletic Club, will be given on Monday and Tuesday evenings at 8:30 o'clock. Tableaux, solo dancing, recitations and kindness dances will be some of the features. Over forty young women have consented to take part.

General B. F. Tracy, the Secretary of the Navy, arrived from Boston on Friday night on his way to Washington. He is staying at the Fifth Avenue Hotel but will start for Washington to-night. He spent yesterday in his old law office in this city, attending to some private matters only. He is accompanied by Lieutenant W. S. Cowles, commander of the Despatch.

The first number of a new weekly journal, "The Hook and Line," was issued yesterday. This is a bright and interesting eight-page paper, devoted to the interests of fishermen of New-York and suburban districts, and contains besides a table of tides, calculated a week ahead, a number of items of interest and value to anglers intending to fish in the waters near New-York.

The "saw-trimming" contract of the street-cleaning department will continue in the hands of the present contractor, at $1,502 a week, until the next of interest in the contract, which restricts the Board of Estimate from making a contract for final disposition of street-sweepings, ashes and garbage. This is $875 a week more than was received up to April 12.

School Commissioner Tamsen, with his wife, will sail for Germany this week. Mr. Tamsen will remain abroad for several months.

William Calkins, Assistant Superintendent of Public Schools, has recovered from the grip sufficiently to resume his duties.

Only this week remnants of the successful engagement of Otero at the Eden Musee. The Spanish dancer will signalize her last nights by the introduction of new dances and specialties. The popularity of the Japanese troupe is an old-tale. Sacred comedy by the Hungarian orchestra are a part of today's entertainment.

Marietta Milton Seggie, an actress, living at No. 73 East One-hundred-and-fiftieth-st., through her counsel, Oscar J. Hochstadter, has begun a suit in the Supreme Court for divorce against her husband, John V. Seggie, whose stage name is John V. Melton. The defendant is now playing with a company travelling through the Michigan circuit. Indelicacy and cruelty are charged by the plaintiff.

Sir Morrell Mackenzie, in a striking article upon "Exercise and Training," in the current number of the New-York "Truth," says: "It is the frequent contraction of the muscles, even more than the force em-played, that produces such remarkable effects; the musical conductor's bleeps are developed by the light he wields as certainly as the blacksmith's by his hammer, and the late Sir Michael Costa had a right arm which many a brawny son of Vulcan might have envied. Perhaps the future John L. Sullivan may prepare for lives of athletic achievement by leading orchestras.

Seventy-six immigrants were returned last week to the ports from which they came.

Colonel Weber yesterday received a letter from the Treasury Department, requesting him to push the proceedings against the delinquent steamship companies which have allowed detained immigrants to escape from their vessels.

Boxing bouts by the "What-Is-It" and the "Leopard Boy" will amuse the visitors to Lord's Eighth Avenue Museum this week. A man who is turning to hope and the "skeleton dance" also hold prominent places among the curiosities, and the Bushnell-Seymour Comedy Company will provide the stage performances.

Receipts for use of Croton water last week, as acknowledged by Water Register B. E. were $23,288.86. Mayor's Marshal Ensign took in $1,850, the proceeds of 577 city licenses.

A banjo, mandolin and guitar concert will be given to-morrow evening at the Lenox Lyceum by the Princeton College Banjo Club, the Haverford College Banjo and Guitar Club, the Columbia College Guitar Club, the Columbia College Glee Club and the Brown University Mandolin Club. A number of well-known soloists on these popular instruments will assist in making the programme an entertaining one, among whom will be Charles E. Johnson, Luis T. Romero, D. Emerson, D. Tipaldi, George W. Gregory and V. S. Ossman.

MISS COGHLAN'S ENGAGEMENT AT PALMER'S.

An important engagement has been made by A. M. Palmer for the appearance of Miss Rose Coghlan at Palmer's Theatre, on April 27, in her new play by Charles Coghlan, "Lady Barter." The piece was originally produced at Toronto last January, and was received with much favor. Lady Barter was originally written by the author for his sister, and is a part that is said to be peculiarly suited to her dramatic capabilities. The play will be carefully set and dressed. It will be a peculiarly appropriate occurrence that she has made so many triumphs, and now for the first time as a star under her own management. It is gratifying to note the success of Miss Coghlan, who is an indefatigable worker always, and there is no doubt of either the quality or the quantity of audience that will be present to see her in the new play. She has secured the rights to her old home on April 27, she has secured a place that has had 250 nights in London, and she has engaged Arthur Dacre and Miss Amy Roselle for the leading parts.

THE FIRST G. A. R. DEPARTMENT.

Montreal, Ill., April 11 (Special).—Major James A. Connolly, Judge-Advocate of the Department of Illinois, Grand Army of the Republic, has found the original records of the G. A. R., which were made by Major B. F. Stephenson, and were stored away in an attic in the third story of a building at Springfield, Ill. The records settle the long-disputed question as to which is the senior department of the G. A. R., placing Illinois first and Wisconsin second. Wisconsin has always claimed to have been the first department to organize the G. A. R. as a department.
